Position Overview

Springboard HealthLab is a new organization, founded in 2021, with a clear goal: to support big ideas that can improve health equity. Springboard is focused on supporting projects to turn promising ideas into new ventures -- and then helping them find a permanent home.

Building Healthy Online Communities (BHOC) is a consortium of public health organizations working in partnership with dating apps to improve sexual health outcomes for app users. We're a small but mighty team that works on home testing and supporting anti-stigma and sexual health features on dating apps. The Global Outreach and Engagement Director role at BHOC partners with global colleagues to expand and adapt BHOC's home testing model and supports expansion of home testing into additional populations.

Job Description

This is a full-time position. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

BHOC Global outreach

- Develop criteria for prioritizing locations for outreach and partnership.
- Conduct a global landscape analysis based on criteria developed above to prioritize locations for implementation.
- Develop and expand global partnerships.
- Lead technical assistance and cross-cultural learning about home testing.
- Support implementation in 3-8 new locations in 2024.

TakeMeHome engagement

- Support expansion of TakeMeHome into new locations and new populations, with focus on the South, Black MSM, as well as other key populations.
- Meet with health departments and CBOs to offer services.

- Create engagement strategy for recruiting end users, through social media, outreach, and other tactics.

Together TakeMeHome (TTMH) Qualitative analysis:

- Analyze data from individual interviews and online focus groups of participants in the TTMH program to identify key themes, illustrative quotes, and make specific recommendations for program improvement
- Write an internal report for program staff highlighting key themes, recommendations and quotes.
- Work with individual participants to develop testimonials for program materials and press.

Other tasks as necessary.

Skills and Experience

Required Skills and Experience

- In recognition that talent is not always dependent on academic degrees or years of experience, we have no minimum qualifications in these areas.
- Strong project management skills, with an ability to multitask and be flexible in the face of competing priorities
- Excellent communication skills, both written and oral
- Well-versed in health equity principles
- Commitment to engage in anti-racism work
- Ability to move work forward independently, with general guidance
- Proficient with MS Office applications (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) and web-or app-based communication platforms (e.g., Zoom, Slack), and comfortable learning new technology
- Experience with administrative tasks, such as scheduling, note-taking, and organizing documents

Knowledge of and comfort with the following is an added benefit:

- LGBTQ+ health
- Sexual health
- Dating apps
- WordPress
- G-suite

Additional Information

- Springboard HealthLab (springboardhealthlab.org) is a virtual workplace, with no physical office. All of our staff work from their homes, but we work hard to foster a remote supportive team environment.
- The successful candidate may be located anywhere, as long as they are eligible to work in the US and can be available during at least part of regular work hours in Pacific Time.
- This position can start at the hired candidate's earliest availability.
- Funding for this position is currently available through December 2024 and may be extended, depending on funding availability.
- Springboard HealthLab staff are eligible for paid sick time, PTO, and paid holidays.

Application Instructions

Springboard HealthLab is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages applications from all qualified individuals. People with lived expertise in communities affected by health inequities are strongly encouraged to apply. We value the unique experiences, strengths, and perspectives that the applicant will bring to this position. Therefore, we will take into account not just academic training but also real work and life experience, engaging in a holistic review of each applicant's personal and professional experience, skills, and values.
